

Peter Abelson

Dr Peter Abelson is a Director of Applied Economics P/L and an Associate Professor in Economics, Macquarie University Sydney. His area of expertise is public economics. He has special expertise in public finance and expenditure, transport, environment, urban and housing economics.

Peter has a B.A. from Oxford University, M.Sc. (Economics) from the London School of Economics, a M.B.A. from Heriot-Watt University, Edinburgh, and a Ph.D from London University.

Peter has over 30 years of consulting experience. He has worked for international agencies on major projects in China, India, Bangladesh, Thailand, Kenya, Nigeria, Zambia, Bolivia and Papua New Guinea.

His recent work in Australia includes training courses in public expenditure for Treasury officers, government pricing policy, several major transport projects, evaluation of public health programs and hospital developments, business planning for infrastructure, evaluation of national housing costs and prices, and financial analysis of property developments.

Further details can be found on www.applieconomics.com.au or on www.efs.mq.edu.au